Mommy's Messages

August 16, 2010 By T. Johnson Leave a Comment

Send the kids off to school with something sweet from Mom tucked into their lunchbox or backpack this year! There is nothing like a special little note from Mom to let your children know how special and loved they are while at school! Mommy's Messages offers sweet, inspiring notes printed on small cards that Mom or other caregivers can write their own sentiments on, too. It may be a tiny gesture, but your son or daughter's day will be much brighter because you care!
